Dear Presidents and Directors of Training

The Candidates' Seminar 2026 is to be continued supported by the EPF, with the event being recognised as a valuable opportunity for candidates from across Europe to meet and to work together.

The structure of the Candidates' Seminar creates a space for candidates from different parts of Europe, including East and West, to exchange and share their ideas.

The seminar's topic will be:

How to become an analyst, how to become a colleague?

Participants will work in small groups moderated by a team of accomplished analysts as follows:

Christine Franckx (Belgian Society), Ewa Glód (Polish Society), Gabor Szönyi (Hungarian Society), Christoph Walker (German Association).

The seminar will begin on Thursday evening with a welcome drink and general introduction, and will continue until noon on Sunday.

A clinical presentation and discussion will be held during a plenary session on Friday. Candidates will then be expected to work in small groups with a moderator.

On Saturday, the continuation of the small groups' sharing of experiences as candidates will proceed.

The last small group session will take place on Sunday morning before a concluding plenary meeting.

We are pleased to offer 4 places to candidates from each of our societies.

The registration fee is EURO 240,00, which includes participation, accommodation with breakfast for three nights and two dinners.

The final schedule will follow.

With warm regards,

Renate M. Kohlheimer
EPF Vice-President

Jan Abram
